PREFACE

Volume 74 of AMERICAN BOOK-PRICES CURRENT reports the auction season from September 1967 through August 1968. New York and London sales are reported, as well as a sale each of Montreal Book Auctions in Canada and Marvin H. Newman of Los Angeles, California. For the several auction houses the number of sales and sessions and the number of entries included are here tabulated.

	Sales	Sessions	Entries

Hamilton	8	8	1,207
Hodgson	6	12	1,357
Montreal	1	3	266

Hodgson & Company became associated with Sotheby & Company in the Fall of 1967, and all this season's sales are, in effect, Sotheby sales at Hodgson's rooms; the familiar code designation "H" remains the same.

The season included Parts III and IV of the Streeter collection; the Judaica collection and Parts I and II of the library of Charles E. Feinberg; Parts I and II of the Oscar E. Carbone library; the libraries of Dr. Enrique Garcia Merou and Edward Newman Horn; books from the Herbert S. Auerbach library; Justin G. Turner's collection of Lincoln autographs and relics; a complete set of specially bound Gregynog Press books (in Part IV of Major Abbey's library); two further sales by the Robinson Trust of Sir Thomas Phillipps's manuscripts; an almost complete collection of the literary properties touched by Thomas J. Wise (primarily Sir Maurice Pariser's collection); collections of Swift and Defoe material; letters and manuscripts of Voltaire and his circle; and sales from the library of Edgar P. Leach.

Undoubtedly the highest priced single item of the season was sold at Christie's on June 19th for £50,000—a superb copy of Firdausi's Shahnama, or Book of Kings, written and signed by Jahangir in the mid 15th century. Sotheby's, in the Phillipps sale of manuscripts on November 28th, offered the Venerable Bede's De Natura Rerum, written by the Abbot Ellinger of Tegernsee in the second quarter of the 11th century. It brought £27,000. This same Philipps sale also saw such literary properties sold as The Craft of Lymmyng of Bokys (England, 15th century), £10,500; William Twity's The Craft of Venery (England, c. 1450), £11,000; Philippo di Vadi's De Arte Gladiatoria Dimicandi (Tuscany, 1482-87), illustrated, and bound in an Urbino binding, £15,000; and a little known and carefully revised early manuscript of the Divina Commedia (Venice?, 1363), £20,000. A vellum illuminated manuscript of the Roman de la Rose (France, 15th century) was sold at Sotheby's on July 10th for £25,000. Christie's sold the Warwick Manuscripts of Sir Fulke Greville's poems and dramas on June 19th for £16,000. The autograph manuscript of John Milton's Latin Prolusion or "Theme" on Early Rising ("Mane citus lectum fuge") went for £12,000 at Sotheby's on November 27th; and at the same house on April 9th the autograph manuscript of Byron's Prisoner of Chillon brought £13,500. An extensive series (1739–50) of 65 autograph letters from Voltaire to his old friend the Marquis d'Argenson fetched £12,000 at the Sotheby sale of June 11th; and a collection of Albert Einstein's letters to Dr. Gustav Bucky, radiologist, physician, and his long-time friend, brought 15,000 gns at Christie's on November 29th.

Charles Hamilton, in Sale 21, sold for $7,500 a letter of Benjamin Franklin to Mr. Canton with a separate leaf with "A Magical Circle of Circles. By B. F." and its explanation. In the same sale a letter written by George Washington to General Henry Lee discussing his concepts of the presidency and its critics brought $25,000. In Sale 22 a single leaf written by the 15-year-old Abraham Lincoln went for $8,000, and the copy of his Debates inscribed by him for Judge S. T. Logan brought $8,500.

Antonio Lafreri's 16th-century Atlas with its 86 maps brought £13,000 at Sotheby's on November 27th. Two copies of Redoute's Les Roses are especially noteworthy—one with the frontispiece in both colored and uncolored states, Parke-Bernet, April 16, $12,500, and a large-paper copy with the plates in the two states, Christie's, June 19th, £10,000. On March 26th at Parke-Bernet, a complete suite of 80 plates of Goya's "Los Caprichos" went for $15,000, and Jules Renard's Histoires Naturelles, with a full-page original drawing tipped in, went for $11,000. John Neal's own copy of Al Aaraaf, Tamerlane [dedicated to Neal], and Minor Poems, with manuscript corrections by Poe himself, brought $10,000 at Parke-Bernet on October 10th.

Part I, Books, includes Broadsides, single-sheet printings, Maps & Charts, uncorrected proof copy, and original illustrations for printed books. Part II, Autographs & Manuscripts, is divided: in Section I are illuminated manuscripts, manuscripts of religious interest, and early manuscripts of historical importance; in Section II are other manuscripts, documents, letters, drawings, and such related material as typescripts and corrected proofs.

Entries are listed alphabetically by author whenever possible, by title when the author's name is not readily available, or by Private Press and Club, illustrator, printer, or publisher headings if such are the associations which attract the collector. Subject headings such as London, Costume, Grolier Binding, Trials, or those for individual U.S. states have also been used. Individual works are in turn listed alphabetically under each heading and include: title; place & date of publication; edition designation; size, binding, and condition of binding; descriptive material, limitation notices; and the sale record—auction house (in code), date or number of sale, lot number, price, and purchaser (when such information has been provided).

There are cross references from Club or Press books, from books bound together, and from those listed under subject headings.

Users will notice that the listings of 20th-century books frequently lack format and binding. In such instances it may be fairly safely assumed that these books are octavo or duodecimo and bound in cloth. It has been the practice not to include such information for books published after 1900.

The present volume lists only those books and manuscripts sold for $10 or £3 or more. American and Canadian sales are recorded in dollars and cents, English sales in pounds and shillings, or guineas. On November 18, 1967, the rate of exchange of the pound sterling was set at $2.40, the shilling, $0.12.

The following pages list the abbreviations used in this volume, the contributing auction houses and galleries, the chronological record of sales, and the named consignors of merchandise.
